1. INTRODUCTION:

1.1 GENDER AUDIT AND ITS OBJECTIVES:

The progress of a nation and its future greatly depends on empowering the women and working for gender equality as half of its population is women. It is a bitter fact that even today; the society is patriarchal, dominated by man. But to build a future and achieve the sustainable development goals, the active participation of women is of utmost importance, gender parity should be achieved.

Gender Audit is a self-assessment tool or a process which helps an institution to trace and analyse whether it has gender parity within its composition, structures, policies and management and identify if there is any gender biases. It also helps in identifying the critical gaps, strengths and challenges and provides recommendations for achieving gender equality.

The objectives of Sonari College Gender Audit is as follows:

- ✓ To study the gender balance in the college.
- ✓ To study the gender sensitization initiatives taken
- ✓ To identify the critical gaps, strengths and challenges and provides recommendations for achieving gender equality.
- ✓
